Welcome to AustCorp Executive Contracting

The ability to make insightful decisions about people is today's most enduring source of competitive advantage. At AustCorp we partner with the business community to find our clients the right people at the right time.

At AustCorp Executive Contracting we understand that your business has fluctuating resource requirements, and that when you have a demand for an executive contractor you want the highest quality candidates, delivered quickly and without fuss.

We also know that when you have an interim personnel requirement you want us to have done the legwork for you. That's why candidates represented by AustCorp Executive Contracting will already have been reference-checked. It goes without saying that our people have the skill sets and experience you require.

With a proven track record of successful placements, AustCorp have all the skills and the experience to find the right people for your needs. We'll give you the result you need, so you can concentrate on getting results.

Our consultants are specialists, well trained, honest and hard working. Our consultants are our most valuable resource.

WE ARE: Big enough to recruit and place all over the world. Diverse enough to find the top 5% of candidates in a wide range of markets, small enough to focus on your particular needs.

OUR VISION: To be the preferred agency to source all your executive contractors.

OUR STRATEGY: To use ethical means to get the best possible result, regardless of how hard we have to work to achieve it.

OUR GOAL: To have a preferred group of clients who we service again and again.

OUR MOTTO: Do it right, the first time.
